

Minister Rob Williams is a uniquely gifted preacher and teacher. His combination of zeal and intellect along with his ability to lead you into a supernatural experience with our supernatural God, makes him a much sought-after conference speaker. Over the last 15 years of public ministry, he has proclaimed his evangelistic message in: churches, correctional facilities, college campuses, and corporate conference rooms; thereby, leading countless hundreds into faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

He is the author of the book, "I'm Saved! Now What? The Proper Response to Salvation" and leading contributor to the MyEvangelismCoach.com website. Minister Williams also assists emerging five-fold leaders with their theological formation and currently serves as a course developer at the Kingdom Bible University, an online University founded by his ministry father and mentor Dr. Dana Carson.

- You can expect his preaching to be passionate.
- You can expect his preaching to be thought-provoking.
- You can expect his preaching to be powerful.

So, get ready for a Kingdom experience. Get ready to encounter Christ and experience His power. Get ready for the ministry of Rob Williams.